Dr. Guerrant Here.

Dr. Guerrant, founder of the Orphans' Home here, and one of the best known men in his line in the state, paid a visit to the Home Saturday and looked over the grounds and buildings. Dr. Guerrant expressed himself as well pleased with everything and praised Mr. Schirmer, the superintendent, very highly. Since coming here a few weeks ago, Mr. Schirmer has been an indefatigable worker, and has finally got things round the Home into pretty good working order. The land is all under cultivation and many improvements have been made, while the discipline of the children has undergone a much needed change. It is regrettable that Mr. Schirmer cannot stay longer to carry out some of the many plans he had in view for improvement of the institution and the benefit of the children, but we understand that he will be transferred to another place very shortly, although he may return here at a later time.

Moves to Danville

"I. G. Jackson, The Messenger's valued foreman, has moved his family from Harrodsburg and taken the residence owned by Mr. Cox, of North Third street, located just beyond the K. O. W. Mr. Jackson is one of the best and most reliable men The Messenger has ever had, and we are, indeed glad that he has decided to make Danville his permanent home." —Danville Messenger.

Mr. Jackson is well known here, having been raised in this county. His father still lives on Hardwick's Creek, and he comes here once or twice a year to enjoy the fishing. Mr. Jackson was formerly connected with the Clay City Times, and is well liked by all who know him.

A. T. Stewart, of Stanton, candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative, was in town Monday.

Married in Lexington

Mr. Joe Mountz and Miss Gertrude Vollmer essayed to "put one over" on their friends Wednesday by slipping away to Lexington on the noon train, and getting married there. The news, however, leaked out, as such things will, and the result was that the young people were accompanied to the train by a good crowd of the younger folks, who wished to see them safely off on their journey.

The ceremony was performed in Lexington at 3.30 at the home of Rev. O. J. Chandler, pastor of the M. E. Church, and who was formerly pastor of the church here. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Vollmer, and is one of Clay City's most charming young ladies. She has been quite active in church work and is an enthusiastic member of the Ladies' Aid. The groom is known throughout the county as one of our most promising young business men, and is also a member of the Clay City Band.

After the ceremony the young couple left for Cincinnati and other points, where they will enjoy themselves for a short time before returning home. The Times joins their many friends in extending the heartiest congratulations to the happy pair.

Band Will Play At Stanton.

The members of the Clay City Band will go to Stanton Monday night to play at the Commencement exercises at the College. Our band is coming along fine, and for the time they have been practising, have made a wonderfully good showing. A good crowd is sure to turn out to hear them.

Fish and Game Law is Enforced.

Deputy Game Warden J. W. Creed, of Stanton, was down here a couple of days last week, looking up some evidence against those who dynamited the river. Mr. Creed is determined to catch the guilty ones, and every fisherman will be behind him in his effort to bring them to justice. In the upper part of the county several have been caught seining, and a short time ago a forty-foot seine was destroyed. As a result of Mr. Creed's good work about twenty indictments will be returned by the next Grand Jury. Mr. Creed is a good officer, and the law abiding people of the county will uphold him in his efforts to protect our fish and game.

Fire at Powell's Valley.

The home of Colie Alexander at Powell's Valley, narrowly escaped destruction by fire Monday. The blaze started from a defective flue and had made good headway before being discovered. The roof of the building was almost burned off, and considerable damage done to the contents.

STANTON.

(By P. O. Derthick.)

Rev. J. C. Hanley preached at Midway last Sunday morning and evening. Jonett Boone, of Louisville, is home for a two weeks' visit with his many friends and relatives. Jonett looks fine, and likes his work.

Colson Blackburn is home for the summer vacation from his school in Louisville.

Mrs. S. D. Hall, of Lexington, visited R. C. Hall and Mrs. Sis Hall this week.

Mrs. Ross Hall and Mrs. Morgan Lyle made a business and shopping trip to Lexington last Thursday.

Miss Tina Derickson is very sick. She with her mother and sister have moved to the rooms over the Post Office so as to be near Dr. Johnson who is waiting on her.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Crowe and son Charley were in Winchester last week where they went to buy household and other goods. They have moved into the house owned by Virgil Atkinson.

Mrs. Bettie Hardwick returned Thursday from a visit to her son, J. H. Hardwick in Winchester.

Miss Laba Knox returned home Thursday from Lexington where she went to be examined as to the recent operation she underwent.

A. M. Lowe, of Rosslyn, visited his sister, Mrs. Grant Frazier, this week.

Mr. G. B. Conlee was in Lexington last week and had his eyes examined and fitted to glasses. He had the misfortune to lose the glasses Sunday during the basket dinner at the Christian Church.

Mrs. Prewitt, of Winchester, returned home Monday after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Blackburn.

Floyd Clay, of Mt. Sterling, visited several days with his aunt, Mrs. Bettie Hardwick, and other friends.

Mrs. Roney Martin, of Gordonton, is visiting Marion Martin's family. Thos. Boone is also visiting them.

Dr. Lemming was at Filson Monday on professional business.

Don't forget the District Sunday School Convention at Nada the fifth Sunday in this month. All are cordially invited to attend, and the people of Nada are expecting a good crowd.

Carl Welch left two weeks ago for Woodward, Okla., where he expects to secure a position. Arthur Johnson, who was a student here two years ago, and who is well remembered by a host of friends here, is at Woodward and he will graduate from high school next week.

It is rumored that Rev. Sherman Robbins will make the race for Railroad Commissioner from the Third District. We think Mr. Robbins is making a mistake to enter this race as the district is composed of 47 counties, and it requires a man of powerful political influence to land this plum.

Miss Grace Maxwell and her mother, Mrs. A. T. Knox, returned this week from New York, where they visited Miss Mina Knox, who is attending a bible training school. They also attended the Commencement exercises of Princeton Seminary where Rev. Mr. Shearer, a former teacher at Stanton College, graduated this year.

Our game warden is hard after the parties that have been dynamiting fish in Red River. It is too bad that people will dynamite fish as it is such a terrible destruction to hundreds of

DID SHE FIND OUT?

The hen stood on the garden bed, Whence all but she had fled, And didn't leave a planted spot In the early onion bed. With vim she worked both feet and legs, And the gardener says he bets She was trying to find the kind of eggs On which the onion-sets.

other fish too small to be caught. If there would be no dynamiting it would not be long till the river would be full of fish for everybody. Mr. John Creed offers a reward of $25 for every one caught dynamiting fish and being convicted.

The Thirteenth District Sunday School Convention of the Christian Church was the best one ever held in the district. The speakers were excellent and from the attention given them the people must have received great good. Sunday was the banner day, with over 325 in Sunday School. The Presbyterians graciously gave way and showed splendid fellowship mingling with us. Over 400 took part in the basket dinner and there was an abundance for all. The officers for the following year are: Paul Derthick, President; W. L. Irvin, Jackson, Vice-President; Miss Rose Coldiron, Hazel Green, Secretary and Miss Lillie Boone of Stanton, Asst. Sec. An auxiliary of the C.W.B.M. was formed, with Walter Thacker, Pres., Miss Lillie Boone, Vice-Pres., and Miss Anna Clark as Secretary. A large number of delegates from the counties in the district attended. The next convention will be held at Jackson.

The College Commencement exercises, the program of which appears on this page, starts tonight. Everybody should hear the lecture on the fly, by Dr. Johnson. It will be given Saturday night, and will be illustrated with stereopticon views, shown by Prof. E. C. Sleeth. Come and hear how many prevalent diseases can be avoided by looking closer after the fly.

An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged to the Gold Medal contest and Band Concert Monday night, but this should not deter anyone from attending. The expenses of Commencement week are heavy on the college and this will only partially defray them.

Misses Maxie and Daisy Johnson, Margaret Lyle, Margaret Mansfield, Lucile Todd and Mrs. Earl Sleeth attended the Inter-scholastic contest at Lexington three days of last week. There were one hundred and ten en-dances to these contests, and a Stanton student won a place on the finals in all of the contests. Miss Maxie Johnson won a place in the finals on reading, Miss Lucile Todd on piano solo and Miss Margaret Lyle won third place on the vocal solo. We are real proud of all these young ladies and we feel that Stanton College is highly honored in thus being represented. It was a honor to be even able to get on for the finals and we congratulate all of them their very signal success and especially to Margaret Lyle for winning third place in vocal solo contest. The best high school talent of Kentucky was represented in these contests and this shows the splendid work Stanton College is doing for our students. There were a great many of the schools of Kentucky that did not even have one of their students get on the finals, while Stanton had three. Hats off, everybody, to these young ladies who have so highly honored our town and college.

All the readers of The Times as well as the writer, extend to the editor our congratulations for the added responsibilities he has assumed, that of the new arrival in his home.

The Natural Bridge excursions start next Sunday, the first train from Cincinnati coming through then. This year the excursion trains will stop here on their way back, thus giving our citizens a chance to enjoy themselves for the entire day. Messrs. Joe and Taulbee Mountz will, as formerly, have charge of the refreshment booth, and are busy this week fixing up for the opening. The railroad company has added many improvements to the grounds and buildings and a good season is anticipated.

D. H. Matherly preached Sunday at Paris Hill, Clark county.
